Specialty Fenestration Group Announces Agency Partnership with LTS Inc.

August 12, 2024: Houston, TX – Specialty Fenestration Group \(SFG\), parent company of US Bullet Proofing \(USBP\), a pioneer in high security window and door systems, and Quikserv Inc., an industry leader in secure transaction systems is excited to announce a new agency partnership with Englewood, Colorado's LTS Inc. This strategic collaboration will enable LTS to support an expanded range of top-tier security solutions to their customers across Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, and Montana.

Under the leadership of Scott Smith, a third generation glazing and security solutions veteran, LTS Inc. is currently celebrating 30 years as a trusted and reputable company in the fenestration industry. The company's expertise includes an architectural sales group, drafting and engineering services and an installation team for large glass opening walls.

With the addition of US Bullet Proofing and Quikserv products, LTS is poised to provide unparalleled security solutions that meet the highest standards of safety and reliability. LTS's representation of US Bullet Proofing and Quikserv brings several key benefits to glazing contractors, architects, and security professionals including expert guidance with security solutions, product selection, detail development, and shop drawing packages. LTS will also provide local and on-ground support for customers with offices in Englewood, CO, Salt Lake City, Las Vegas, and Arizona.

"We believe that by partnering together with LTS Inc., our teams can create innovative solutions that will benefit the industry as a whole," said SFG Chief Revenue Officer, Hector Vallejo. "LTS brings a diverse team pairing technical expertise with seasoned agency experience in architectural design and construction. The agency's profound knowledge in fenestration systems aligns impeccably with our mission to educate, consult, and assist the customers and facilities we are dedicated to serve and protect."

Scott Smith, President at LTS Inc., shares his enthusiasm for the partnership, stating, "We only want to work with the best solutions in the industry and I'm looking forward to hitting the ground running with the USBP and Quikserv product lines. I did my due diligence in speaking with several glazing subcontractors and every one of them said SFG is a great company to work with."
