The Kansas City VA Hospital had a grant they were working with, and they wanted to create an outdoor gym. They came to us (Push Pedal Pull) looking for some low-end ellipticals and bikes. Our contact at the hospital said many veterans won't come all the way inside the building for exercise, but they were hoping to create an outdoor space that was inviting for all. This gave me the opportunity to introduce Outdoor-Fit's high-quality strength and cardio options.
